Do you have Grandmas quilt stashed away somewhere and wonder what it might be worth?

Brenda Grampsas is a certified quilt appraiser from Brooksville, FL and will be here at Inspire on Friday, June 9th. We will take appointments for appraisals in the afternoon, then in the evening at 6pm Brenda will give us a lecture titled "To Finish or Not to Finish- That is the Question" Finishing found antique and vintage tops and blocks". There will be light refreshments available as Brenda talks to us about her passion, antique quilts.

That is the Question" Finishing found antique and vintage tops and blocks". There will be light refreshments available as Brenda talks to us about her passion, antique quilts.

On June 9th, Brenda will be available to write professional quilt appraisals for Fair Market, Donation or Insurance purposes on NEW, VINTAGE, and ANTIQUE quilts. Verbal appraisals are offered for the owner's benefit. If you have a piece or two that you would like her to appraise, she will be here on Friday afternoon by appointment.
