

Long Time Gone - A 6 or 12 month Block of the Month Program

6 Months – Monthly from December 15, 2017 – May 15, 2018

12 Months – Bi-Monthly from December 15, 2017 – October 15, 2018

Who doesn't love a scrappy quilt? Jen Kingwell, an Australian pattern and fabric designer is currently very popular. Most everything she creates looks as if she has a bottomless scrap bag, when in truth, she designs fabric too. Her faves are dots, stripes and geometric along with some small to medium scale florals and novelties.

We love her look here at Inspire! and wanted to share our latest favorite pattern with you. To make our version of her quilt – Long Time Gone, we pulled 32 coordinated colors, 8 light background prints in a mixture of cottons and batiks plus two sashing fabrics that are in the taupe-gray range. We think our version is modern looking and great! See fabrics below:

We will make the project in 6 sections, each with quite a lot of sewing to be done. Choose to make Long Time Gone in six or twelve segments which include sashing and checkerboard filler blocks. If you choose the 6-month option, by April you will have all everything you need to finish up. This project is about 65" X 68" finished. If you want it larger, just add more blocks!
